[Recording in Cambodian faded into Vietnamese translation]

Respectfully to Premier Pham Van Dong, Vice-Premier Nguyen Duy Trinh, Excellencies and Ladies, the leaders of the DRV, Excellency Le Khoang Hong, Excellency (Khamsay Boupha), and Excellencies and Ladies in the Diplomatic Corps and dear Vietnamese brothers and sisters and friends:

On behalf of the delegation that I have the honor of heading
I would like to express our profound thanks to excellencies, ladies and friends for being present at this present intimate banquet that is an excellent occasion for the brother peoples of Cambodia and Viet-Nam to express their love as companions-in-arms sharing weal and woe, and to affirm their conviction in the common victory of the sacred causes their respective countries are pursuing on the basis of our common ideals: independence, sovereignty, peace and territorial integrity. The present banquet is a precious occasion for manifesting the long-lasting militant solidarity of the Cambodian and Vietnamese peoples. Your presence constitutes a great honor and encouragement to our valiant Cambodian people and combatants, who are vigorously attacking the U.S. imperialists and their henchmen on the vanguard front and are advancing toward completely liberating our fatherland.

Tomorrow our delegation will temporarily leave you excellencies and the DRV government and people with extreme reluctance. Our delegation's visit to the DRV has ended successfully. This success is an echo of the recent great military victories of the Cambodian people and CNPLAF on Route 6 and in Rum Luong, in Phnom Penh and around it, in Pochentong, in (Kamboul) and so forth. This is also a common success of the fraternal Cambodian, Vietnamese and Lao peoples. We will convey to Head of State Samdech Norodom Sihanouk, Chairman of the NUFK; Samdech Penn Nouth, Chairman of the NUFK Political Bureau and Premier of the RGNUG; Vice Premier Khieu Samphan; the RGNUG; the Cambodian people and the courageous cadres and combatants of our CNPLAF the warmest sentiments of friendship, militant solidarity and unanimity of President Ton Duc Thang; Le Duan, First Secretary of the VWP Executive Committee; Premier Pham Van Dong; Vice Premiers Vo Nguyen Giap and Nguyen Duy Trinh; the leading officials of the state, the Viet-Nam Fatherland Front and the VWP; the heroic Vietnamese people and members of the heroic VPA.

Dear Excellencies and Vietnamese Brothers and Sisters:

During our sojourn in the Democratic Republic of Viet-Nam, our delegation has visited with great interest a number of places. In the factory or in the countryside, at the theater or the exhibition "Pictures of the Indochinese Battlefields", at the great base of the Vietnamese revolution and other important places, we have felt with emotion the sublime revolutionary heroism and the ingenuity of the valiant Vietnamese people and the heroic combatants of the Viet-Nam People's Army, which constitute a powerful, concrete revolutionary force. The heroic Vietnamese people and combatants have given due punishment to the American air pirates and have victoriously defended the country's territorial integrity and sovereignty although the U.S. imperialists have deployed in a massive manner all their means of destruction.

Moreover, the people of the Democratic Republic of Viet-Nam have turned their country into a solid socialist country to which the Viet-Nam of the colonialist period is not comparable. The Democratic Republic of Viet-Nam has fully accomplished her sacred role as the great rear area regarding the brothers in South Viet-Nam as well as her noble internationalist duties to the fraternal peoples of Cambodia and Laos. We wish to express our very warm congratulations and our admiration to the brother Vietnamese people who have recorded these brilliant victories in acting upon the testament of the great President Ho Chi Minh and under the clear-sighted leadership of the Viet-Nam Workers Party.

Besides, we note with enthusiasm and profound satisfaction the identity of views on all the questions raised by our two parties during the very cordial and fraternal talks between companions-in-arms. Our two parties have identical conceptions and stand regarding the conduct of the revolutionary war of national liberation and regarding the attacks against the U.S. imperialists and their running dogs, till final victory.

Our delegation has particularly noted the unanimity of view of our two parties on the conception of militant and fraternal friendship and fighting solidarity.

In the history of the relations between our two peoples the combat solidarity and militant and fraternal friendship between Cambodia and Viet-Nam have never been so firm as they are now. This fighting solidarity and this militant friendship are born in the bloodshed by our two peoples for more than a century now in their arduous common struggle against French colonialism, Japanese militarism, and U.S. imperialism and their running dogs, and for the noble common ideals of independence, sovereignty, peace and territorial integrity for their respective countries. Under the difficult circumstances imposed by the common enemy of our two countries in the past and faced with the common enemy, the peoples of our two countries closely united with each other and were victorious. Under the more difficult circumstances now when our two countries have to face a very barbarous common enemy, our two peoples are greatly and firmly developing their solidarity, joining their efforts in all fields, fighting together and together recording brilliant victories, and advancing to the common total victory.

This solidarity between our two peoples is a combat solidarity forged in the blazing flames of the revolutionary war for the liberation of our two countries. This solidarity is not born either by chance or by circumstances. Born in the history of the fraternal relations between our two peoples it is a necessity because our two peoples, who are advancing to the complete liberation of their respective countries, need it for the reconstruction along the path that each of them will take.

This combat solidarity between the Cambodian and Vietnamese peoples only greatly benefits them, because in their relations our two peoples respect the principles of equality and mutual respect, in conformity with the Joint Declaration of the Indochinese People's Summit Conference. Wise with their historic experiences, the Cambodian people are very glad with this fighting solidarity and are determined to strengthen and develop it to make it eternal, authentic and firm. The great President Ho Chi Minh has taught the Vietnamese people a concise but very significant formula "Solidarity, Greater Solidarity, Success, Greater Success !" We must always keep this formula in mind.

Dear Excellencies and Vietnamese Brothers and Sisters :

Our delegation, on behalf of our people, our combatants, the NUFK and the RGNVC now renews our very deep and warm thanks to the Vietnamese people, the Viet-Nam People's Army, the Viet-Nam Fatherland Front, and the Government of the Democratic Republic of Viet-Nam, for their vigorous support and multiform, efficacious assistance to the sacred struggle of the Cambodian people. With their own efforts and the support and assistance of the friendly countries, particularly the Democratic Republic of Viet-Nam, and closely united under the banner of the NUFK presided over by Samdech Norodom Sihanouk, Head of State, the Cambodian people are resolved to continue to attack the enemy uncompromisingly and unflinchingly and, in close coordination with the brother peoples of Viet-Nam and Laos, to fight the common enemy--the U.S. imperialists--and their running dogs, the Thieu clique, the puppets in Bangkok, the Lon Nol-Sirik Matak-Son Ngoc Thanh clique of traitors, till the complete liberation of Cambodia.

Dear Excellencies and Vietnamese Brothers and Sisters :

Before leaving Viet-Nam we are confident that the fraternal Cambodian and Vietnamese peoples unanimously have the same viewpoint and stand vis-a-vis the carrying out of national liberation warfare because they have made allout personal efforts and have supported and helped each other on the basis of militant friendship under any circumstances. With unshakable solidarity with the fraternal Lao people and with the assistance of the world's peoples, we will certainly score total success, chasing the U.S. imperialists out of the territory of each country and all of Indochina, completely annihilating their running dogs in each country, regaining the sacred national rights of each people and building beautiful and prosperous countries in accordance with the lines chosen by each country.

Before ending my speech, our delegation wants to deeply thank the DRV government and the Vietnamese brothers and sisters for having reserved this cordial welcome for us and for having helped us. You paid extremely careful attention to us as if we are brothers in the same family, thus creating conditions for our delegation to successfully carry on our visit in the "the Cambodian, Vietnamese, and Laotian peoples will certainly win, the U.S. imperialists and their lackey running dogs will certainly be defeated and annihilated" direction.

Imbued with this spirit, I raise my glass to wish that the brotherly militant unity and friendship between the Cambodian and Vietnamese peoples will last forever, that the brotherly militant unity and friendship among the Cambodian, Vietnamese, Laotian peoples will last forever, that the brotherly Indochinese people's struggle against the U.S. imperialists and their lackeys running dogs will win common and complete victory, that the DRV will win even greater victories, that the respected and beloved President Ton Duc Thang will be in good health and live a long life, that the respected and beloved First Secretary of the VWP Central Committee Le Duan will be in good health and live a long life, that the Respected and Beloved National Assembly Standing Committee Chairman Truong Chinh will be in good health and live a long life, that the respected and beloved Vice Premiers Vo Nguyen Giap and Nguyen Duy Trinh will be in good health and live a long life, that the gentlemen and friends--the leaders of the DRV--will be in good health and live a long life, that the respected and beloved Le Khoang Hong will be in good health and live a long life, that the heads of diplomatic delegations and their wives will be in good health and that the Vietnamese brothers and sisters and the intimate friends present here will be in good health.
