LIBERATION PRESS AGENCY [Clandestine] in English to East Europe and the Far East 1539 GMT
13 Jun 73 B

[Text] South Vietnam June 13 LPA--Mr. Andre Souquiere, secretary general of the French peace movement, has sent a letter to Minister Nguyen Van Hieu warmly greeting the fourth anniversary of the formation of the PRG of the Republic of South Vietnam.

The message said among other things:

"For the first time, this year our message of greetings on the anniversary of the formation of the PRG will be at the same time a greeting of victory after many years of fighting and suffering of the South Vietnamese people. So the first thing we wish to tell you is to say how much we are happy before the victory recorded by the Vietnamese patriots.

"In the new phase of the struggle of the Vietnamese people, for the application of the Paris agreement, we assure you of our indefectible solidarity and we will do all that we can to contribute to sweeping away all obstacles set up by those who refuse to recognize the existence of a free and sovereign country."

Japanese Communist Party's Greetings

[Text] South Vietnam June 13 LPA--On the occasion of the fourth anniversary of the founding of the PRGRSV, the Central Committee of the Japanese Communist Party has sent a message of congratulations to the South Vietnam National Front for Liberation Central Committee.

The message said:

"Since its foundation, the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Vietnam, enjoying ever stronger support of the South Vietnamese people, has unceasingly enhanced the banner of national independence and freedom to resolutely struggle against the most brutal and largest scale war ever known in the history of the biggest imperialist power in the world, and has gained great prestige at home and abroad as the authentic representative of the South Vietnamese people. The Agreement on Ending the War and Restoring Peace in Vietnam signed on January 27 this year marked great historic victory in the heroic anti-U.S. struggle for national salvation of the Vietnamese people. The victory recorded by the Vietnamese people has not only added more glorious pages of history but also made an immense contribution to the world people's struggle against imperialism for national salvation, peace and social progress."

The message stressed that the Japanese Communist Party and people will stand side by side with the Vietnamese, Cambodian and Lao peoples till their final victory.

RGNUC, NUFC Leaders' Greetings

LIBERATION PRESS AGENCY [Clandestine] in English to East Europe and the Far East
1735 GMT 8 Jun 73 B

[Text] South Vietnam June 8 LPA--Samdech Norodom Sihanouk, head of the state of Cambodia, president of the NUPK, and Samdech Penn Nouth, prime-minister of the RGNUC, chairman of the Political Bureau of the NUPK Central Committee, have sent a joint message of congratulations to lawyer Nguyen Huu Tho, president of the Presidium of the NFLSV Central Committee and president of the Advisory Council of the PRGRSV, and Huynh Tan Phat, president of the PRGRSV, warmly greeting the fourth anniversary of the PRGRSV.

The message reads in full as follows:

On the occasion of the fourth anniversary of the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Vietnam, [on] behalf of the Cambodian people, the National United Front of Kampuchea and the Royal Government of National Unity of Cambodia, and in our own names, we extend to your excellencies, to the PRGRSV and to the entire fraternal people of Vietnam, our warmest and most cordial greetings.

In the past years, under the wise leadership of the NFL and the PRG, the Vietnamese people, who have struggled with exemplary courage and heroism against the U.S. imperialist aggressors and their lackeys to defend their sacred national rights, have obtained successive victories of strategic importance, forcing the U.S. and the Saigon regime to sign the Paris agreement on Vietnam on January 27, 1973. The NFL and the PRG have enjoyed ever growing prestige on the international arena.

The Cambodian people and their NUPK and RGNUC warmly greet these brilliant victories of the fraternal Vietnamese people, which constitute an efficacious and precious support to their own national salvation struggle against U.S. aggression. They very sincerely rejoice over these victories. They always stand on the side of the fraternal Vietnamese people in order to work for the development and strengthening of their fraternal friendship and militant solidarity, for the triumph of their common ideal of peace, justice and freedom.

May the fraternal Vietnamese people record new and resounding victories in their struggle to secure scrupulous observance and application by the United States and the Saigon regime of the Paris agreement on the ceasefire and the restoration of peace in Vietnam and to reunify their beloved fatherland. We ardently wish your excellencies the best of health, happiness and (?still) bigger successes in your noble mission in service of your people and your country.

Please accept my [as received] very highest fraternal regards.

[Text] NFLSV Chairman Nguyen Huu Tho and PRGRSV President Huynh Tan Phat on 12 June sent the following message of thanks to Samdech Norodom Sihanouk and Samdech Penn Nouth:

Dear Samdech Norodom Sihanouk, chief of state of the Kingdom of Cambodia and chairman of the NUPK, and Samdech Penn Nouth, RGNUC premier and NUFC Politburo chairman:

On behalf of the NFLSV and PRGRSV and on our own behalf, we sincerely thank the samdech chief of state, the samdech premier, the NUFC, the RGNUC, and the Cambodian people for their warm greetings on the occasion of the PRGRSV's fourth founding anniversary.

The heartfelt and noble feelings of the samdech chief of state and the samdech premier and the repeated, glorious victories of the heroic Cambodian troops and people on all battlefields are strong encouragement for the South Vietnamese people's just struggle in the new stage to build a peaceful, independent, neutral, democratic and prosperous South Vietnam and advance toward peaceful reunification of the fatherland.

The South Vietnamese people sincerely wish the heroic Cambodian people even greater victories and resolutely support the five-point proposal mentioned in samdech chief of state's statement.

May the close friendship and unshakable militant solidarity between the South Vietnamese people and the fraternal Cambodian people last forever! May samdech chief of state and samdech premier remain in the best of health and happiness. We extend to samdech chief of state and samdech premier our respectful salutations.

South Vietnam 12 June 1973 [signed] lawyer Nguyen Huu Tho, chairman of the NFLSV Central Committee Presidium and chairman of the PRGRSV's Advisory Council, and PRGRSV President Huynh Tan Phat.

[Text] South Vietnam June 8 LPA--First Secretary Todor Zhivkov of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party and President of the State Council, and Chairman Stanko Todorov of the Council of Ministers of the People's Republic of Bulgaria June 5, 1973 sent a joint message of greetings to President Nguyen Huu Tho of the Presidium of the South Vietnam National Front for Liberation Central Committee and of the Advisory Council of the PRGRSV and President Huynh Tan Phat of the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Vietnam on the occasion of the fourth anniversary of the founding of the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Vietnam.

The message said among other things:

"The Bulgarian people are overjoyed to see that this time the anniversary is celebrated in a new situation created by the signing of the Agreement on Ending the War and Restoring Peace in Vietnam and the act of the international conference on Vietnam.

"In its hard, protracted and (?legal) fight against the U.S. aggressors and the Saigon puppet troops, the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Vietnam has proved itself a faithful organizer and leader, and a genuine representative of the interests of the people in South Vietnam. It has won the sympathy and admiration of all the progressive and democratic forces in the world.

"The State Council and Government of the People's Republic of Bulgaria and the entire Bulgarian people (?condemn with vehemence) the violations of the Paris agreement by the Saigon administration backed by the United States. They demand with insistence the strictest observation of all the provisions of the agreement in the interest of the entire Vietnamese people and the reinforcement of peace in Indochina. They support the six-point proposal of the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the RSV concerning the solution of the questions of the internal affairs of South Vietnam.

"We take this opportunity to wish you new successes, and assure you that the Bulgarian people will fully support the struggle of the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Vietnam for the realization of the most earnest aspirations of the people in South Vietnam."

[Text] South Vietnam June 8 LPA--First Secretary Janos Kadar of the Hungarian Socialist Workers Party CC, President Pal Losonczi of the Presidential Council and Chairman Jeno Fock of the Council of Ministers of the People's Republic of Hungary June 6 sent a joint message of greetings to President Nguyen Huu Tho of the Presidium of the South Vietnam National Front for Liberation Central Committee and of the Advisory Council of the PRGRSV and President Huynh Tan Phat of the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Vietnam the occasion of the fourth anniversary of the founding of the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Vietnam.

The message said among other things:

"The Paris Agreement on Ending the War and Restoring Peace in Vietnam is the result of the common struggle waged by the Indochinese peoples. The foreign troops had to quit South Vietnam. This protracted struggle full of abnegation has proved that the Provisional Revolutionary Government is the genuine representative of the South Vietnamese people, who have won the sympathy and admiration of the peace- and justice-loving mankind, and are now struggling for the consistent and absolute application of all the provisions of the Paris agreement and the act of the international conference on Vietnam by all the signatory parties.

We consider the six-point proposal advanced on April 25 by the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the RSV as a manifestation of sincere efforts aimed at consolidating peace. On behalf of our people and government we support this proposal.

"We assure you that the People's Republic of Hungary will reserve within its ability as in the past all support to your struggle for the defense of peace, the national reconstruction and the welfare of the people."

On this occasion Mr. Janos Peter, minister for foreign affairs of the People's Republic of Hungary, sent a message in the same vein to Mme Nguyen Thi Binh, RSV foreign minister.
