NFLSV OFFICIALS GREET CAMBODIAN LEADERS

Norodom Sihanouk

Liberation Radio (Clandestine) in Vietnamese to South Vietnam 1000 GMT 12 May 1967--S

(Text) Samdech, on the occasion of your assumption of office as chairman of the Council of Ministers and His Excellency Son Sann's assumption of office as Prime Minister of the Government of the Cambodian Kingdom:

We wish to extend our warmest greetings to you both. The NFLSV is very glad and convinced that the new government under Samdech's leadership will certainly further strengthen the forces opposing the U.S. imperialists and their lackeys, protect independence, sovereignty, and territorial integrity, and score many great achievements in the task of building Cambodia into a prosperous country. We hope the friendship and militant unity between the Vietnamese and Khmer peoples will further develop. We wish to extend to you, Samdech, and His Excellency Son Sann, our respectful salutations.

Lawyer Nguyen Huu Tho, chairman of the NFLSV Central Committee Presidium, South Vietnam, 8 May 1967.

Norodom Phurissara

Liberation Radio (Clandestine) in Vietnamese to South Vietnam 1000 GMT 12 May 1967--S

(Text) On the occasion of your reappointment as foreign minister of the Government of the Cambodian Kingdom, I wish to extend to you my warmest greetings. I hope that the friendship and militant unity between the Vietnamese and Khmer peoples will be increasingly strengthened and will develop more and more in the interests of strengthening the force of struggle against the interventionist and aggressive policy of the U.S. imperialists and their lackeys in order to protect national independence and safeguard peace in Indochina and the world. I wish to extend to you my respectful salutations.

NFLSV Foreign Relations Committee Chairman Tran Buu Kiem; South Vietnam, 8 May 1967.

Son Sann

Liberation Radio (Clandestine) in Vietnamese to South Vietnam 1400 GMT 15 May 1967--S

(Text) Respectfully, to His Excellency Son Sann, Prime Minister of the Royal Cambodian Government: In the name of the South Vietnamese people, the NFLSV, and in my own name, I wish to extend to you my warmest greetings on the occasion of your appointment as Prime Minister of the Royal Cambodian Government. I hope that you will score great achievements in your noble task, thus contributing to leading the brotherly Khmer people to resolutely struggle for the protection of the independence, neutrality, and territorial integrity of the Cambodian Kingdom. Lawyer Nguyen Huu Tho, chairman of the NFLSV Central Committee Presidium; South Vietnam, 10 May 1967.
