NFLSV Central Committee And PRGRSV Appeal To South Vietnamese People On The Signing Of The Paris
Agreement On Ending The War And Restoring Peace
In Viet-Nam

[Liberation Radio, clandestine, in Vietnamese to South
Viet-Nam 0100 GMT 28 January 1973]

Dear compatriots and combatants, the NFLSV Central Committee and the PRGRSV solemnly declare before all compatriots:

On 27 January 1973 the foreign ministers, plenipotentiaries of the DRV Government, the PRGRSV, the U.S. Government and the RVN Government, signed the Agreement on Ending the War and Restoring Peace in Viet-Nam. The main contents of the Agreement are:

The United States and all other countries undertake to respect the independence, sovereignty, unity and territorial integrity of Viet-Nam.

The United States will end the war of aggression completely, end its military involvement and intervention in the internal affairs of South Viet-Nam, respect the right to self-determination and guarantee the rights to freedom and democracy of the South Vietnamese people.

The South Vietnamese people will decide for themselves their own political future through a truly free and democratic general election.

The reunification of Viet-Nam shall be carried out step by step through peaceful means.

Dear compatriots and combatants, the U.S. imperialists' war has ended and peace has been restored in our country. This great victory is the result of 18 years of violent fighting and enduring tens of thousands of sacrifices, difficulties and hardships by all our heroic people and by our Southern armed forces and people, who have fought on persistently, who were the first to fight and the last to win and who have always been worthy of being the brass fortress of the Fatherland.

All our nation is the victor. Anyone with Vietnamese blood in his veins, who truly loves the country and the people, has the right to be proud and share the glory.

Glory first of all belongs to the people's elite children-- the war heroes who have sacrificed for the Fatherland. Glory belongs to the heroic Liberation Armed Forces that have scored many brilliant armed exploits and to all stalwart and brave children of the country who have braved terrorism and imprisonment, resolutely struggled and fought the Americans for national salvation to liberate the South.

This victory of the Vietnamese people is also the victory of the three fraternal countries' peoples of the Indochina Peninsula, who united in fighting the common enemy. This is also the victory of all independence - and freedom-loving nations and all progressive mankind, including the peace - and justice - loving Americans.

The great victory of our Vietnamese people proves that in today's era a nation with a small land and population but having a correct revolutionary line and knowing how to unite the entire people and effect international solidarity and with the determination to fight and win can surely defeat any aggressive enemy.

Dear compatriots and combatants, the dawn of peace and the glory of victory are illuminating all mountains and rivers in our country. Before the eyes of our people opens a new stage, a new situation very favorable for our completion of the national and democratic revolution.

However, our people's struggle is still full of difficulties and complications. The reactionary, militarist, fascist and satellite forces still nurture many dark schemes of sabotaging peace and opposing independence, democracy and national concord. Therefore our people's present duty is to strive in the spirit of national concord to unite the entire people, resolutely maintain true peace, independence and sovereignty, implement the rights to freedom and democracy, improve the people's living conditions, build a peaceful, independent, democratic and prosperous South Vietnam and advance toward peace and national reunification.

The NFLSV and the PRGRSV solemnly declare that they will seriously and actively carry out all provisions of the signed Agreement and perseveringly struggle for their full implementation.

Great solidarity and national concord are our nation's noble tradition and the unchanged, clear-cut and resolute policy of the NFLSV and the PRGRSV.

Any Vietnamese who had no opportunity to participate in the resistance to protect the Fatherland can now contribute to our people's common struggle. The NFLSV and the PRGRSV warmly welcome and are ready to cooperate with all who want peace, independence, democracy and national concord, regardless of their past activities.

Bloodsealed affection and compatriotism must be respected. Let us shake hands, as we are the members of the same family. Let us eradicate all hatred and suspicion and cooperate in building a life full of love and happiness.

Let the PLAF cadres and combatants continue to struggle under the banner of protecting peace, independence, democracy and the signed Agreement. Let them correctly implement the cease-fire order, and in all contacts with the brother RVN troops treat them like brothers and advance the great cause of national concord.

Friends, officers and troops of the army of the Saigon administration, restoration of peace is our common victory. To maintain peace firmly is to love one's country and people and is your vital happiness. We hope you will cooperate with brother liberation combatants, seriously implement the cease-fire and avoid any regrettable incidents.

The policy of the Front, Government and our people is clear and correct. Their attitude shows good will and sincerity. In this dignified hour in our history, the PRGRSV hopes the Saigon administration will place the Fatherland's interests above all, meet the requirements of our compatriots of various strata, through sincere consultations quickly set up the National Council of National Reconciliation and Concord of three equal segments at all echelons, and quickly proceed toward organizing truly free and democratic general elections so that the Southern people can freely decide on their political regime.

Let both sides conduct serious negotiations on all conditions and clauses of the Agreement, fully implement all the people's free and democratic rights, heal the war wounds, care for our compatriots' livelihood so they can live a happy, decent life soon, quickly establish normal relations in all aspects with the North and promote negotiations with the DRV government so as to proceed toward peace and reunification of the Fatherland.

Dear kith and kin Northern compatriots, faced with our people's glorious victory, the Southern compatriots and combatants have engraved in their minds the blood-sealed love and great service of the heroic Northern compatriots and combatants in the anti-U.S. national salvation resistance. The Southern people have complete confidence that the 22 million compatriots who are building and strengthening the North in all aspects will serve as a support for all our people's struggle to firmly maintain peace, achieve independence and democracy and proceed toward peacefully reunifying our country.
